ON KEEPING APPOINTMENTS

Remember, I use the time-tested Truth of God's word to deal with all problems. Because of this fact, Satan does not want you to come for your counseling sessions-especially if things seem to be getting worse. Do not believe his lies when he says subtly: "You don't need to go this week - everything is ok; he really can't help you; so don't go back; he's too scientific for you and all that scientific stuff will not work; you've been to other counselors and they couldn't help so what makes you think Rick can help you?" Remember, Satan, through his demons, will try to deceive you into believing his lies concerning going for help and keeping your appointments. Satan knows there is ABUNDANT LIFE through the Lord Jesus Christ. Resolve now to "draw nigh to God, resist the devil, and he will flee from you," and set your mind on seeking the ABUNDANT LIFE that is available to you through the Lord Jesus Christ. See you at your next scheduled appointment!
